Lyn Buchanan, Controlled Remote Viewer (1:44:39)

Lyn Buchanan who worked for the Defense Intelligence Agency in the 1980s & remote viewed the Rendlesham Forest Incident reveals what he reported - including an 'incubator' inside a triangular craft and the impression of non-human intelligence looking for planets in which the incubator life forms could thrive.

A very interesting and revealing interview with this prominent remote viewer - hosted by John Burroughs and Linda Moulton Howe

 Re: The Remote Viewing Data Dump

Ancient Bases Under Earth Are 'Relaying' Something Into Space. (15:20)

April 11, 2020

Not widely known about, Project 8200 was an effort within the US Army's remote viewing unit to verify claims of subterranean extraterrestrial bases made by CIA analyst Pat Price in the 1970s.

We obtained every '82 to '86-era declassified file of Project 8200, most of which were never officially reported to their higher-ups in the intelligence community. This is what the episode covers.

In 2009, ex-Stargate head Skip Atwater declassified all of this information at an International Remote Viewing Association (IRVA) conference, though only hard copies of his presentation are available offline.

What they show are the apparent confirmation by several other gifted remote viewers that a 'network' of underground bases exists across the world for the purpose of 'relaying' something into space.

As elite viewer Joseph McMoneagle and Atwater discuss in these tapes, Project 8200 data suggests the locations relay information to a 'deep space' platform of unknown origin, sitting on a sort of tether to Earth. It's not suggested in the file, but after review, we think it's reasonable to ask if a Lagrange point (positions in space the Sun & the Earth's gravity create islands of stability) explains why the object McMoneagle sees remains 'fixed' there.

The deep space platform is described as ancient but with new technology. Other viewers describe the bases as a strange mix of natural and artificial formations.

Russell Targ SRI Star Gate Remote Viewing Revealed: Psychic Surveillance (44:13)

PROJECT STAR GATE WITH THE FOUNDER OF THE REMOTE VIEWING PROGRAM
Dark Journalist Daniel Liszt welcomes Physicist Russell Targ for a deep look at his amazing career in developing and training individuals in psychic development for secret government programs at Stanford Research Institute (SRI) with clients like the CIA and the US Military.

Targ reveals that in their remote viewing program they learned that the mind has limitless potential & that our consciousness can travel anywhere, even backwards & forwards in time. His breakthrough

book, The Reality of ESP, highlights his years of covert intelligence work with the best psychics on the planet, including Ingo Swann, Joe McMoneagle & Pat Price who died mysteriously as Targ reveals

in compelling detail after the CIA learned he was sharing his experiences with a top member of Scientology.

Source: <https://youtube.com/watch?v=lpXx5ROJJ20>

I wasn't sure I believed in remote viewing, until I tried it.. Almost as if in some synchronicity, I received a message and was prompted to give that message to John Vivanco. I of course thought it would cause him to laugh for weeks or months, but that was not the case. Apparently he had asked a question once, and I was told the answer.. almost as if in confirmation that indeed, remote viewing is very real... In fact he contacted me to ask me what other messages I may have received.

There were none of course, as this was something "They" did, designed to put my mind at ease that I wasn't imagining the remote viewing, or the claims of such, and I was relieved that they did it with someone I respected in the field. The entire experience involved a few others that are fairly well known as well.. But when he speaks up, I tend to believe what he gets, mostly as a direct result of my own experiences...

Oddly enough, AFTER I got my message to him, I saw a video where he had actually asked the question I was answering. I cannot tell you how stunned I was that this had even happened. I believe we can all access this if we exercise some thought to the process and allow our minds to do what they can, without us trying to tell the mind what it is limited to...

Just my thoughts on remote viewing..

Thanks 👍

Yes, this Linda Moulton Howe interview is infinitely much better. I've already filed this in the Rendlesham directory in the library, about a month ago now.

Two versions: 1 MP3 and the MP4 can be found here: http://avalonlibrary.net/?dir=Rendle..._incident_1980

Re: The Remote Viewing Data Dump

Remote Viewing The Extraterrestrial Presence on Earth (1:22:17)

Feb. 7, 2021

Joseph McMoneagle was involved in Remote Viewing experiments conducted by U.S. Army Intelligence and the Stanford Research Institute. He was one of the original officers recruited for the top-secret program now known as the Stargate Project. Along with Ingo Swann, McMoneagle is best known for the investigation of Remote Viewing and the use of paranormal abilities for military intelligence gathering. He also feels that it is one of the few tools available that might tell us something specific about our future interactions with Extra-Terrestrials, or the impact such contact might have within our sciences and society.
