

A visual map of Remote Viewing history - showing people, methods, programs, schools & key milestones.

(Note: not every single moment and person involved within remote viewing history is listed in this map. Generally this map lists the key players that were 'officially' involved, those still practicing, and those involved in a public way with Remote Viewing websites and media. One group has requested to be taken off the map - we have replaced these with a '?')

SCIENCE

1991 - Ed May moves RV research from SRI to SAIC.

1992 - Lyn Buchanan retires from the Remote Viewing unit.

1993 - 'Mind Trek' By Joe McMoneagle is published.

1995 - June 30th - CIA cancels the Star Gate Remote Viewing program

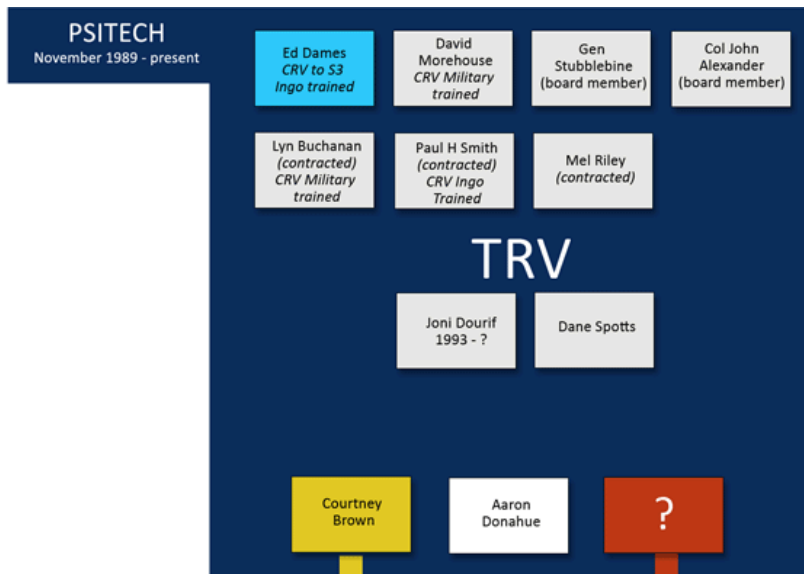

1995 (June 30th) Star Gate transfers from the DIA to the CIA, who then close the program.

Remote Viewing reaches the Public domain

1989 - Remote Viewing starts to seriously leak from its Intel and military roots into the public domain as the ex members of the Ft Meade unit and programs leave the service. Led primarily by Ed Dames.

1989

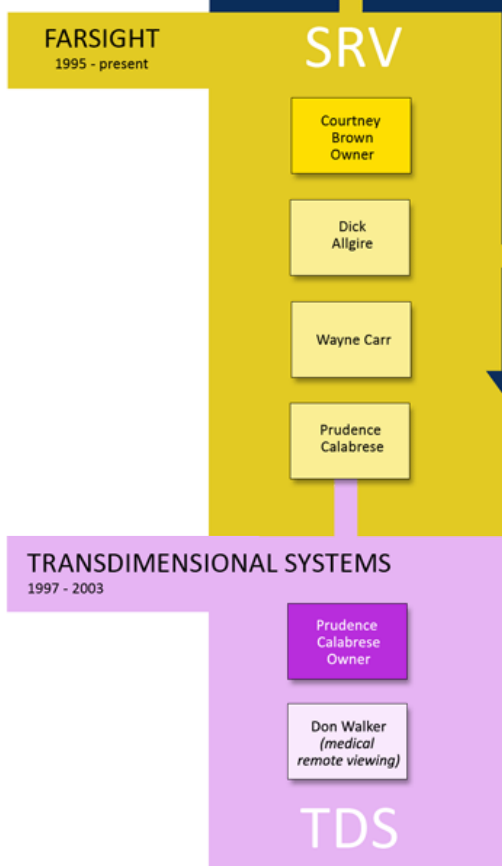

1989 - General Stubblebine, former Military supervising officer for the RV unit & Col John Alexander join the PSITECH board.

1993 - Joni Dourif commercializes PSI TECH. She became the Vice President and immediately they moved the company from New Mexico to Beverly Hills, California. They opened in-house TRV training and taught a 10 day course for 6 years with Ed Dames.

1996 - Joni Dourif & Ed Dames created the first Remote Viewing training tapes to provide the public at large with training.

1999 - Ed Dames leaves PSITECH due to a lawsuit. Joni becomes its president. Dane Spotts buys into PSITECH and becomes CEO. Joni also later leaves PSITECH to form a new RV company.

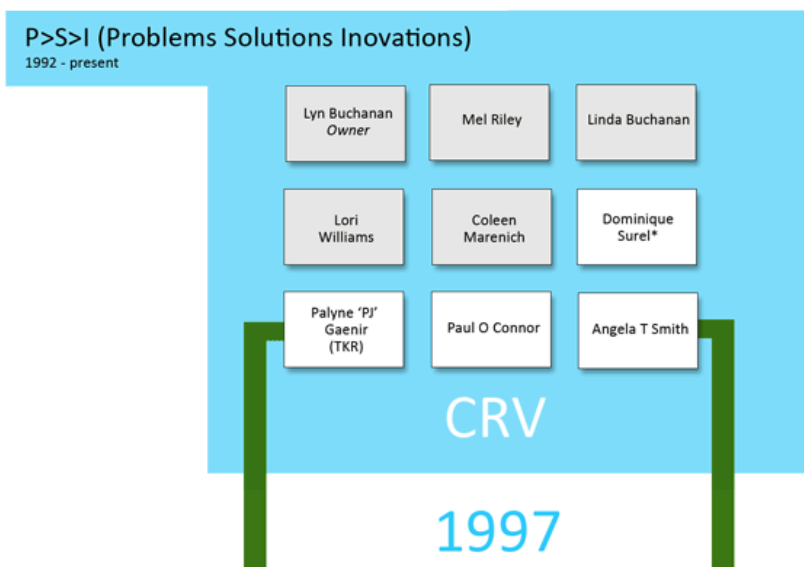

? HAWAII (All details removed upon request by Glenn Wheaton. For further details see their online forum).

1997 - Ed Dames starts his new Remote Viewing company/method.

1997 - present: TDS has several students active within the Remote Viewing community; Don Walker, Roma Zanders, Tunde Atunrase, & Jon Knowles but no teachers and only one RV business (Don Walker).

1992

1992 - P>S>I and Lyn Buchanan teaches a version of CRV which is somewhat different from Ingo CRV in terms of vocabulary, and in certain ways in theory and doctrine, but is similar in others.

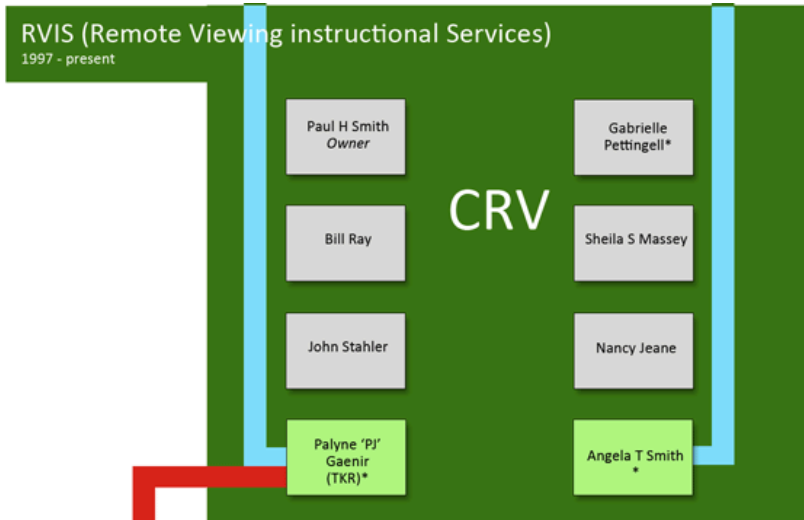

1995 - (June) CIA cancels STAR GATE program.

1996 - Remote Viewing is featured in many media articles and broadcasts, and becomes a featured item on Coast to Coast and other talk shows.

1996 (Nov) - The Book 'Psychic Warrior' (Morehouse) published.

*2010 - Dominique Surel teaches CRV on a Master degree and PhD degree level for 'Energy Medicine University'.

1997

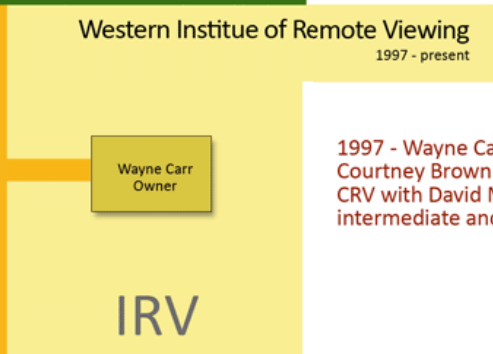

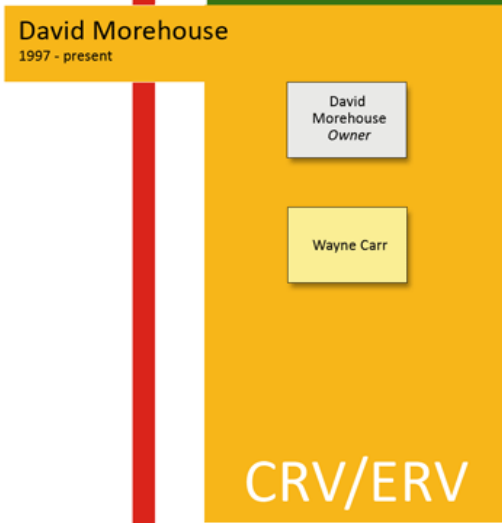

1997 - RVIS and Paul H Smith teach CRV which is very close to the Ingo format of CRV.

*In 2002 - Gabrielle was killed in a car accident.

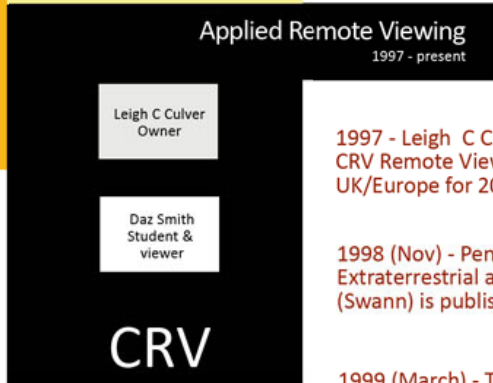

*Angela T Smith was taught by Both Lyn Buchanan (stages 1-5) and Paul Smith (stages 1-3).

*PJ was taught by Both Lyn Buchanan and Paul Smith amongst others.

1997 - Remote Viewers - The secret history of America's Psychic Spies, (Schnabel) book released.

1997 - Wayne Carr first trained in SRV with Courtney Brown to instructor level then later CRV with David Morehouse through basic, intermediate and advanced levels.

1997 - Leigh C Culver teaches the first CRV Remote Viewing Course in London, UK/Europe for 20 students.

1998 (Nov) - Penetration: The Question of Extraterrestrial and Human Telepathy (Swann) is published.

1999 (March) - The International Remote Viewing Association (IRVA) was organized by selected scientists and practitioners meeting in Alamogordo, New Mexico in conjunction with the first professional conference on Remote Viewing in Ruidoso, New Mexico.

note:
NRVG changed its name to 'Wessex Remote Viewing Group' in 2009.

2000 (May) - Remote Viewing Secrets: A Handbook (McMoneagle) is published.

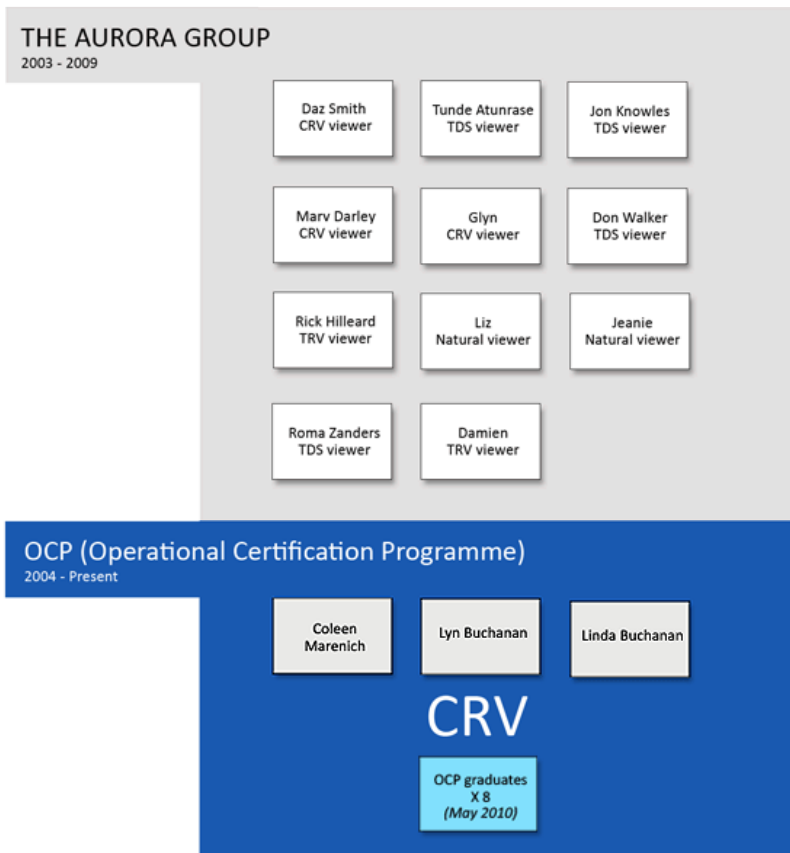

2003 (March) - PJ launches TKR. The largest forum, collected tools and resource online for the education, teaching and support of remote viewers.

TKR supports solo and group viewing in any method but emphasizes double-blind protocol. They have a robust membership and session archive.

The staff since founding has included viewers from the worlds of CRV, ERV, HRVG, SRV, TDS, TRV, web/book/self-trained viewers and protocol-psychics.

2004

2003 (Feb) - The Seventh Sense: The Secrets of Remote Viewing as Told by a "Psychic Spy" for the U.S. Military (Buchanan) is published.

2004 - From approximately 2004 the Aurora Group started to share its mixed method Remote Viewing project results online.

The group was the first public mixed method remote viewing group where differing forms of RV were used together in operations and projects.

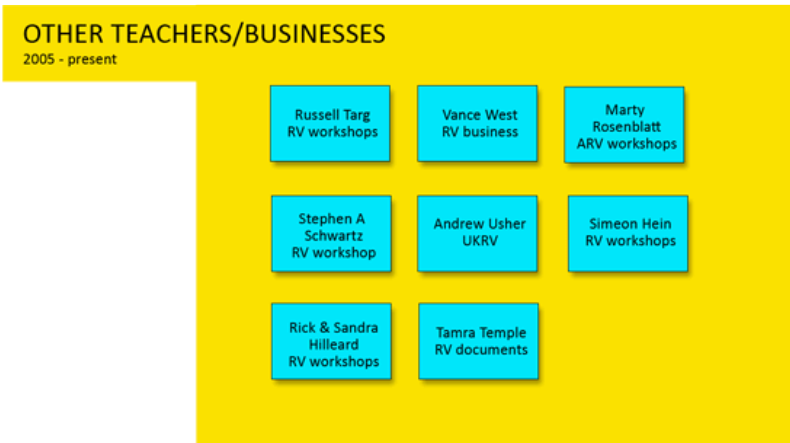

2004 (Dec) - Reading the Enemy's Mind: Inside Star Gate: America's Psychic Espionage Program (Smith) is published.

2004 - P>S>I & Coleen Marenich began to organize and train a group of advanced CRV students to become the 'Best' operational Remote Viewers possible.

Graduates of the program became mentors to future trainees and took a role in organizing the group's loosely formed professional association by identifying its goals, mission statement, a code of ethics and member responsibilities. The association is called The Professional Controlled Remote Viewers Association.

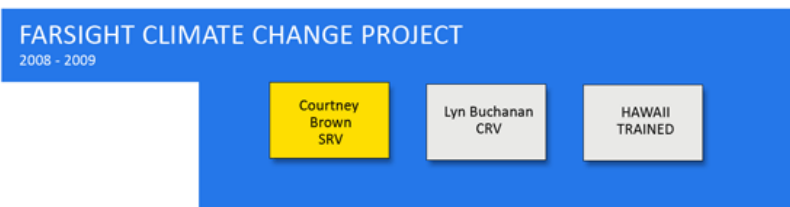

Many students applied for the program over the years, but only a few who have successfully completed it. The number of graduates to complete the program is eight. (as of May 2010).

2005 onwards

2005 - Present. Many different teachers and businesses now offer an array of remote viewing workshops, CD's, DVD's and services. This is a small list of some of them.

2008

2008 - Farsight Organised a Remote Viewing study using remote viewing to study climate and planetary change between the years 2008 and 2013. Three schools of Rv participated.

TRAINED

2009 - Farsight organised a Remote Viewing study using remote viewing to predict the future more accurately.

“To date, only one experimental design using remote viewing has ever worked consistently to correctly predict the future. We now have an idea why that particular experimental design works, and why other experimental designs do not work as well. The reason may have to do with the existence of multiple universes, and we now have a way to test for this directly.”

FARSIGHT MYSTERIES PROJECT
