

Orange Light West Of Williams Lake

Williams Lake, BC - March 1, 1968

APRO Files

Sighted orange coloured light travelling slowly from south to north, west of Williams Lake. Sky at the time was overcast and no stars were visible. The object appeared to drop something at four different intervals, and then slowly faded out. At that time I was in the company of Mr. Wm. Mushonsky.

Source: <https://ufobc.ca/Reports/MusgraveFiles/>